The Healing Road is dedicated to Mario, a member of our TheBearded-Community. In December 2006 his wife died all of a sudden, only 36 years old, leaving a completely shocked husband and two kids. I wish you all the strength you need on your healing road, Mario.

Crovenia ist dedicated to Siegfried.

Espresso Bar is for Enrico. Su con la vita, amigo!

Thank you

Siegfried, for your never ending patience and the joy of traveling.
Thommy Frank, Roland Enders, Kai Heyrock and Matthias Klaiber for your contributions.
The members of The Bearded community, for musical advice, encouraging comments, constructive criticism, interesting discussions, a lot of humour and for „starting the fire“, especially Ben Schneider for letting me torture his drums for 4 hours in May 2005 which definitely has been a major motivation boost.
